Camelot Centre Adult Day Program Inc.

Camelot Centre is a not for profit, registered charity, offering continuing education, life skills, physical fitness, recreation, crafts and social interaction in a structured environment for intellectually disabled adults. Incorporated in July 2006, Camelot Centre was started by a board of dedicated parents of intellectually disabled children who, upon completing their high school educations had no program in the community to meet their special needs.

Vision, Mission & Values

To offer a creative and stimulating learning and developmental environment for adults with intellectual disabilities over the age of 20.

Daily programs include:

- computer labs for literacy
- educational programming
- life skills education; cooking, shopping and community outings
- Partnering with the Burlington Library
- physical recreation on site and with daily walks
- seasonal special events and occasional day trips
